

George Haworth, the Emigrant
came to America in 1699 in company with his sister's husband, both of whom died during the voyage. A sister, Mary, married to one Myrick preceded him a year or two and was then known in Philadelphia. He first settled in Bristol, but afterward settled in Buckingham in the county of Bucks. In the year 1710 he married Mary Scarborough, a Quaker a native of Pennsylvania, but descended of English parents. He died in 1724.

